Information about the town and/or neighborhood	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - El Puerto de Santa María https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=512ekedCs4M https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=m0aUrRIMQgk The town is small enough to settle in immediately and meet people, while vibrant enough to keep you occupied for the entire year, if not longer. There are tons of restaurants, bars and cafes full of friendly locals who are more than happy to chat, and they provide a fantastic opportunity to improve your Spanish and knowledge of the local area. The city is resplendent with typical Andalusian architecture, including a castle, bull ring and cathedral, all located within beautiful plazas. In addition, there are plenty of beaches and an agreeable climate year-round which allows you to make the most of them. If you need an escape to the countryside, El Parque Nacional de Doñana (a beautiful National Park) is just around the corner, as well as plenty of scenic hiking trails through La Sierra and
