There are tons of restaurants, bars and cafes full of friendly locals who are more than happy to chat, and they provide a fantastic opportunity to improve your Spanish and knowledge of the local area. The city is resplendent with typical Andalusian architecture, including a castle, bull ring and cathedral, all located within beautiful plazas. In addition, there are plenty of beaches and an agreeable climate year-round which allows you to make the most of them. If you need an escape to the countryside, El Parque Nacional de Doñana (a beautiful National Park) is just around the corner, as well as plenty of scenic hiking trails through La Sierra and los Pueblos Blancos, while if bigger cities are your thing, Sevilla, Jerez and Cádiz are all easily accessible by train or car.
